

We thought it had been a while since we last updated you on what's happening at 4D Lighting so here's what's new!

4D Lighting illuminates Bristol Airport

We recently had the opportunity to work with one of our customers on Bristol Airport screening area. The airport is currently undergoing a multi-million pound development including refurbishment and new build work which it was a pleasure to be involved in. Although we were not directly involved with the lighting design for the airport, 4D were asked to supply these fantastic 3m pendants which have gone down exceptionally well with all involved. - Click here to see more..
